Step 22 Prepare plans and drawings

Which plans?

The following is a general guide to the type of plans you will need to prepare.

A. Location / Context Plan

Required for all applications and with specific details for commercial (Comm), industrial (Indu), services (Serv), small enterprise projects (SE) as specified in the checklist opposite.

B. Site Analysis Plan

Required for all applications which involve construction/development/change of use.

C. Scaled Plans and elevations

Required for all applications which involve construction and preferably on A4 or A3 size.

D. Survey Plan and Subdivision Plan

Required for applications for excision of land/subdivision among heirs.

E. Cross Section Plans

Required for all applications which involve construction.

F. Structural plans and structural details as per the Building Act.

Required for all applications which involve construction.

G. Design Process

The design of a development layout involves consideration of the following issues:

- Analysing the site context
- Determining the appropriate intensity of development
- Establishing the broad framework, including consideration of connectivity and cohesiveness
- Establishing development types and plot sizes
- Determining the requirements for community facilities
- Incorporating traffic management systems
- Planning for visual and acoustic privacy

H. How do you calculate plot coverage?

When calculating coverage, all enclosed spaces on the ground floor shall be taken as 100% of their enclosed area on plan. "Enclosed" means surrounded by walls and covered by a roof. In the case of verandahs, porches, car parks and similar uses, they should be included within coverage if they are covered by a roof.

Where the verandah, porch, car park is backed by no more than one wall, the area should be included as 50% of its plan area in the coverage calculation. If backed or enclosed by two or more walls the whole area shall be included in the coverage calculation.

Checklist

The following checklist will guide you on what information is required on your plans. Be sure you show all the details that are relevant to your proposal.

Title Block

Include a title block on every plan showing:

- Name of professional.
- Plan number and date.
- Name of applicant.
- Amendment number and date (if relevant).
- Location and description of property.
- Description of project

Orientation

Include a north point on every plan. This will help us relate your plans to the site.

Scale

Show the scale as specified in the application form on every plan and ensure all plans are drawn to metric scale.

Levels

Your plans and elevation must show relevant information including contours, ground levels, and roof levels.

Location Plan

Accurate location plan, showing distance of site from specific or prominent landmarks to be submitted. For Comm/Indu/SE/Serv Projects, location plans should show all existing buildings/development in the immediate vicinity of the site (on side, rear boundaries and on opposite side) with details on the height, set backs and character of buildings in that area. This will help the Authorities to determine whether flexibility to guidelines in the PPG can be applied.

Site Plan

Must show -

- Existing and proposed buildings on the site, including setbacks (in metres) from boundaries, front and rear entrances and current uses.
- Outline of buildings to be shown (not roof plan).
- Fences, walls, swimming pools.
- Street frontage features – poles, trees, kerbs, crossings, handrails, drains, etc...
- Vehicular access to site in a safe location where visibility is good and visibility splays provided.
- Provision for on site parking and no reversing onto A or B road.

How do you calculate Floor Area Ratio (FAR) applicable to commercial buildings in major centres?

FAR is a factor that relates the sum of the gross enclosed area of all the floors of the development, to the area of the site. A FAR value therefore dictates the total development bulk permitted on a site.

For calculating FAR, the following areas are excluded -

Building services, sited in basements, on purely 'service' floors, or on roof tops;

Basement car parks; and

Light weight balconies (whether covered by a roof or not).

The well of an internal atrium is to be taken at half the plan area for each floor, but any surrounding corridors are to be calculated at full area.

Step 3:Filling the application form

PART A

The following on the application form require particular attention:

1. Owner's consent/signature

You must obtain the consent of the land owner if you are not the owner. If there is more than one landowner, signatures of all owners are required. If the application form is not signed by the landowners and by you as the applicant, the application will not be accepted.

2. Proposed development

You must describe the proposed development in detail. Tell us exactly what you propose to do. If you cannot fully describe your proposal in the space provided on the application form, you will need to include a full description on a separate sheet, which needs to be properly signed and dated by you.

PART B

Before filling in this section, please ascertain that the person preparing your plans is familiar with the relevant provisions in the Outline Planning Scheme, the PPG, the Building Act and the guidelines.

Sections 1.0 & 2.0 (to be filled in for all applications except those applying for excision/subdivision of land or for the installation of any engine).

Section 1.0 deals mainly with the plans to be submitted. Your draughtsman/architect must ensure that they design the project as per the guidelines in Step 2 of this guide.

After filling the above sections proceed to fill in the checklist applicable to your development.

These checklists have been designed in such a way that the professional, while filling in the form, will become immediately aware of the requirements and of any shortcoming in his plan.

You may find the application form lengthy and cumbersome to fill in. Please note that there needs to be self-adherence to norms & guidelines, as per the new framework. This form helps you to understand all the norms that you have to comply with.

PART C

Part C of the form will have to be filled in by the Service Providers and this will enable you to know the amount of BLP fees payable on collection of your permit.
